

The Loft Studio – Terms & Conditions

Studio Hire

Definitions

“Hirer” means the individual or organisation renting The Loft Studio facilities. “The Studio” means The Loft Studio, its owners, employees, and authorised representatives. “Hire Period” means the agreed time slot booked for studio use.

Bookings & Payment

Bookings are confirmed only upon receipt of full payment.

Cancellations & Rescheduling

Cancellations more than 5 days prior to hire will result in forfeiture of the 50% of the booking fee. Cancellations within 5 days are non refundable.

Use of Studio

The Hirer must vacate the premises promptly at the end of the hire period. Overruns will incur additional hourly charges. The Hirer is responsible for the conduct of all persons in attendance and must leave the space clean, tidy, and in its original condition.

Equipment & Props

The Hirer may use studio equipment as agreed prior to hire. Any faults must be reported immediately.

Insurance & Liability

The Hirer is responsible for arranging appropriate public liability insurance. The Loft Studio accepts no liability for loss, theft, or damage to personal property.

Health & Safety

All attendees must follow health and safety guidelines. Children must be supervised at all times. No smoking, vaping, or hazardous materials allowed.

Termination of Hire

The Studio reserves the right to refuse entry or terminate a session if behaviour is unsafe, unlawful, or disruptive.

Governing Law

These Terms & Conditions are governed by the laws of England & Wales.
